Inductee Park Day Recap

What a wonderful inductee day, the Hall of Fame would like to thank all of you who came and visited us; we are proud of where we are today. The program kicked off with Tim Maher’s softball poem, and then George Bliss and Ron Kubicki handled the HOF highlights and inductee introductions in front of a good crowd. The plaques were unveiled and photos began to be taken. Following the plaque ceremony was an outstanding last inning win by the Southside vs Northside Legends. The game was one the best in our series with some outstanding players involved for the first time, but the one that caught everyone’s attention was the play of the only girl, Rosie Geraci.

We are always looking for people who may wish to help or volunteer. Please reach out to Rachell Entler, Office 708-366-7500 x 17, Email rentler@pdofp.org if interested.

Tito's 45's Win Forest Park Nationals Over Dynasty

Congratulations to the 45s on winning the 49th Annual No Glove National Championship. They were terrific all weekend going a perfect 5-0. Alex Smith of the 45s was the MVP. Alex not only was an offensive force, but played a great CF.

Chicago Dynasty finished 2nd and played great as well. Rounding out the final four was Rack City finishing 3rd and Brick making their first appearance in the final 4.
